

VIA BARCELONIA

With a nod to the music of the past and a leap into the music of the future, Via Barcelona rides the fine line of authentic, festival music, coupled with honest, folk inspired, thoughtful songwriting. Think 'Paul Simon meets the Chainsmokers'. While their debut single "Just Wanna Dance" hit over 40,000 streams the first week, it was their second single that helped demonstrate their diversity. "Walls Come Down", a fully acapella, world music inspired song about the current social dynamics proves that VB is successfully merging the sounds of time with the sonics of the world.

Boasting songs co-written with multi-platinum songwriters and productions by Juno award-winning producers, this is an act with soul-stirring, stadium-ready songs, addictive and electrifying energy, and one with limitless opportunity.

Via Barcelona's Debut EP was released in September of 2019 to critical acclaim which helped earn them a FACTOR grant for the upcoming EP release in June 2020.

The band is made up of percussionist/vocalist/producer Taylor McKnight and Multi-Platinum, 5 x Top 10, Sony/ATV singer/songwriter Andrew Allen.
